FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Salvation Army Canadian Staff Band to perform in Edmonton

Edmonton, AB – April 4, 2018 – The Salvation Army’s Canadian Staff Band will be making a rare trip to Edmonton on April 6, 2018 for a special concert at The Salvation Army Edmonton Temple, 9115-75 Street NW at 7:30 p.m. The Canadian Staff Band is a world class brass band from Toronto that has represented Canada on tours nationally and around the world, including the U.S.A., England, Holland, Germany, Italy, Switzerland, Norway, Brazil, Australia, and New Zealand.

“We are honoured to have the Canadian Staff Band here in Edmonton,” says Capt. Mark Stanley, Divisional Secretary for Public Relations and Development. “They are always very busy touring year-round so to have them perform here is very special and we are looking forward to it.”

This concert is a family-friendly event for all ages. Tickets are $20 or only $10 for students and seniors, and are on sale now at SalvationArmy.ca/alberta.

The Salvation Army is an international Christian organization that began its work in Canada in 1882 and has grown to become the largest non-governmental direct provider of social services in the country. The Salvation Army gives hope and support to vulnerable people today and every day in 400 communities across Canada and in 128 countries around the world. The Salvation Army offers practical assistance for children and families, often tending to the basic necessities of life, providing shelter for homeless people and rehabilitation for people who have lost control of their lives to an addiction. When you give to The Salvation Army, you are investing in the future of marginalized and overlooked people in your community.
