FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Fort McMurray Salvation Army Hosting the Canadian Staff Band The brass band is attending 40th Anniversary Celebrations

Fort McMurray, AB – April 5, 2018 – The Salvation Army in Fort McMurray is celebrating their 40th Anniversary with the help of a very special guest, The Salvation Army’s Canadian Staff Band. They will be performing a concert at the Keyano Theatre on Saturday, April 7, 2018 at 7 p.m. and at The Salvation Army’s Sunday service on April 8, 2018 at 9:30 a.m.

A highly in-demand brass band based in Toronto, they tour extensively in Canada and around the world, including the U.S.A., England, Holland, Germany, Italy, Switzerland, Norway, Brazil, Australia, and New Zealand.

Major Stephen Hibbs, leader of The Salvation Army in Fort McMurray says, “We are excited we can bring world class musicians to Fort McMurray to help The Salvation Army celebrate 40 years of mission, service, and ministry.”

This concert is a family-friendly event for all ages, and tickets ($10) are available online at Keyano.ca/theatre or by calling 780-791-4990.

The Salvation Army is an international Christian organization that began its work in Canada in 1882 and has grown to become the largest non-governmental direct provider of social services in the country. The Salvation Army gives hope and support to vulnerable people today and every day in 400 communities across Canada and in 128 countries around the world. The Salvation Army offers practical assistance for children and families, often tending to the basic necessities of life, providing shelter for homeless people and rehabilitation for people who have lost control of their lives to an addiction. When you give to The Salvation Army, you are investing in the future of marginalized and overlooked people in your community.
