Media Advisory:

Wood Auto Donating Van for Salvation Army Use During Their 2018 Toy Angels Campaign

Calgary, AB – November 30, 2018 – The Wood Automotive Group will handing over the keys to one of their vans to The Salvation Army on Friday, November 30, for the rest of their Toy Angels campaign. The van will be used to pick-up toy donations from around the city that will help make sure there's a present under every tree on Christmas morning.

The 24th annual Toy Angels campaign runs until December 21 and last year, over 7000 children received gifts for Christmas because of generous donations by the people of Calgary.

New, unwrapped toys can be dropped off at:

- CIR Realty offices
- Marlborough Mall
- Westbrook Mall
- Ricky's restaurants
- Calgary Police Service stations

Media are invited to the key presentation:

Date: Friday, November 30
Time: 3:30pm
Location: Woodridge Ford, 11580 24 St. SE, Calgary, AB

A Salvation Army spokesperson will be available after the presentation for interviews.
