

The Salvation Army
Canada & Bermuda
British Columbia Division

103 - 3833 Henning Drive Burnaby BC V5C 6N5
Tel: (604) 299-3908
Fax: (604) 291-0345
www.SalvationArmy.ca

Public Relations & Development

Giving Hope Today

The Salvation Army Wildfire Relief Grants APPLICATION

INTRODUCTION

The Salvation Army is providing financial relief for victims of the 2017 fire season through a grant program. Grant money will be distributed to those individuals and businesses, including non-profit organizations and service clubs that can demonstrate a need resulting from the fires of 2017. Our aim is provide you with a process that is simple and free of complexity, while still satisfying our responsibility to our donors and their true intentions.

WHO IS ELEGIBLE?

Residents of British Columbia who can demonstrate a loss or need due to the fire season of 2017. Applications will be reviewed using a criteria-based approach for approval and they will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis by our organization. You must demonstrate that you are a resident of the region in order to be eligible or that your small business operates in the region. The following individuals or groups are eligible to apply for the grant:

- Individuals
- Non-profit Organizations
- Small Business
- Service Clubs

BASIC CRITERIA:

Appropriate use of funding for all grant recipients Grant funds must be used within British Columbia. These funds were donated to our organization willfully by generous and caring individuals and businesses across the province and the country – and in your own community. As such, we have an obligation to ensure it is used responsibly and we can demonstrate transparency and accountability.

- Direct personal needs: clothing, food and household items
- Loss of employment, revenues or income
- Loss or interruption of a program or service
- Loss of property
- Ability to provide estimates / receipts / invoices / financial statements

MAXIMUM FUNDING LEVELS:

The maximum amount of money an individual or organization can receive for a Fire Relief Grant will be determined by The Salvation Army on a case-by-case basis.

HOW TO APPLY:

Fill out the application form online. Send the completed copy and all supporting documents, i.e. receipts, estimates, etc. by mail to 103-3833 Henning Drive, Burnaby BC V5C 6N5. Attention Mike Leland. You may also scan and email all documents to mike_leland@can.salvationarmy.org. Only complete applications will be processed. An application is considered complete when the application and all supporting documentation have been received. All applications will be reviewed and receive a reply.

Giving Hope Today

THE SALVATION ARMY WILDFIRE RELIEF GRANTS APPLICATION FORM
1. Legal Name
2. Mailing Address
3. City	4. Province	5. Postal Code
6. Tel	7. Email
8. Amount Requested
9. Clearly outline the nature of your loss, why you are appealing for funding and how that funding will be used.

- I certify that all of the information I have provided is true
- I have provided receipts / estimates / other supporting docs
- I was residing in the areas at the time of the fires and continue to reside in the area

Signatory Name (please print)

Signature

Date (yyyy-mm-dd)