Think About Kindness in a Variety of Ways

There are so many different ways to practice kindness in your classroom. Encourage your students think about ways they can be kind to others, reflect on ways others have been kind to them, and expand their vocabulary related to kindness.

Activity Suggestions:

Use the provided kindness notepad to encourage students to write kind notes to each other, or you can utilize the Kindness Climb Cards provided in the School Toy Drive activity box.

Kindness & the Ripple Effect

Explore how one small act of kindness can create a ripple that leads to greater good.

Activity Suggestions:

Have students write or draw their own "kindness ripple" stories: one act they've done or seen that led to other acts of generosity.

Create a Classroom Quilt of Kindness

Students will identify ways they can show kindness in everyday life. Each student decorates a square with an act of kindness they can do or have seen. Assemble into a class kindness quilt.

Activity Suggestions:

Math: Explore geometric patterns in quilting — symmetry, area, and perimeter using quilt designs.
